“ What can I say about Abel , a good friend loving catering funny and outgoing . We shared some good times and some tough times , but at the end of it all we still made it. I'm sadden that we couldn't have more time to really see life all the way , but I will miss you dearly my brother . I you are at peace and spending time with your mom like old times , to all the Ybarra family let's remember all the good times we had together, love you bro your friend Jaime Reyes
