“ Want to say a fair goodbye to my childhood friend. Those last days we spoke on the phone were pleasant. We remembered our good old days when we were at Bowie Elementary. He was so happy to hear from me. I searched for him until I found him. We would talk for hours. One of our conversations was about the good Lord Jesus. Told him how much he loved him and that God had plans for him. Not one day did he not want to listen to what I had to say. But for sure he is with the Lord Jesus. He accepted the Lord Jesus as his personal savior. He was forgiven of all his sins. He was born again him in Texas and me in Idaho. He is a new creature in Christ Jesus. We would pray all the time. When I heard he passed it hurt so much because I didn't get to see him. Also when he passed he was sleeping and never woke up because he was ready. What a peaceful way to go with the Lord. I know for sure that I will see him again. All of us that stayed here Jesus is the life the way the truth to heaven. Accept him as your personal savior in your hearts and you shall be saved. That is what he wants your heart he will take care of the rest. Part from sin and hatred because that will get us no where. Live at peace now. Tomorrow is not promised. My long beloved friend. I will miss you ... Condolences to the family LOVE NORMA
