“ I remember Albert from many years ago. Nellie,his wife. Was always there during my growing up years. I met Albert when he and Nellie were just going together. Albert would arrive at my grandmas house in his blue car and Nellie would run out ,jump the porch steps and greet him. Albert was always there. Through the many years we would go visit when they first lived at albert,'s moms house and in later years when they moved to their present and last home. Nellie ,Beto and the children were always there. Albert would always smile and laugh. At times we would go over and just visit. Or they would go and visit my mom. Beto will be missed so much as will Rey. Our hearts go out to the family. Beto and Rey are now with the Lord resting in peace.

“ On behalf of the Rodriguez family from Mercedes Texas and from the bottom of my heart I offer you our condolences. I pray our Lord give you the strength to heal. The pain I feel I can image is not near to what you are feeling now. Mr. Castaneda will go with me in my heart and in my music. He is gone but never will be forgotten. He has been reunited with his wife as has Rey with his mom and only that makes this easier. God Bless you! With much love, DJ Dora Da X Plorer. Dora C. Rodriguez
