“ Uncle Al, I know it’s been a few years, but I will forever remember the laughs and the great times together of “cagando el palo” — Thank you for always looking out for us and for the inadvertent life lesson of it’s okay to have fun and still have a great work ethic! May you Rest in Peace Uncle Al!

Love you tio!

“ In the early 80's Dallas was a hit show on TV. Ern & I lived in San Antonio. We came to visit the family one time, when mom was still alive. She always knew Al always wanted the best of the best for his family. She had a secret nickname for his family & called them "The Ewingings" Well that time when we visited She was anxiously our arrival. Al happened to visit, she heard a car looking out the window she sighed & said ohh it 's just "The Ewingings" that was mom's term endearment. She was too funny! I
