“ I am truly heartbroken. My Tia Licha was the warmest, kindest, most generous, loving person. Twice in my life I lived with Tio Teo and Tia Licha, once when I was in middle school and once when I was a junior in high school. Tia Licha never made us feel like a nuisance, or like we were not welcome. I remember her taking me to school in her big van. She would cook the best dinners. She was kind, she was understanding, and many times I felt like she knew exactly how I was feeling without any words spoken. Nancy and Danny, thank you for sharing your wonderful mother with me, especially during those difficult times. She was a shining example of kindness, compassion, love, empathy and service to others. My Tio Teo and Tia Licha were a monumental blessing in my life. Love you Tia Licha. Thank you for everything with all of my heart.
May she rest in peace and may God receive her in his Glory.
