

Amelia C. Gonzales

November 2, 1935 - August 29, 2025

With profound love and cherished memories, the family of Amelia C. Gonzales announces her peaceful passing on August 29, 2025, surrounded by her loving family.

Born on November 2, 1935, in Harlingen, Texas, to Pedro Cruz and Eugenia Torres, Amelia lived a beautiful life devoted to her faith, her family, and her passions.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her beloved children, Gilberto Gonzales, Jr., Richard Gonzales, and Anita G. Rivera; and numerous siblings.

Amelia is survived by her loving husband of 68 wonderful years, Gilberto B. Gonzales; her devoted children, Belinda Gonzalez (Alejandro Jr.), Rebecca Gonzales, Cynthia E. Gonzales, and Dora A. Gonzales. She leaves behind a lasting legacy through her 26 grandchildren, as well as numerous great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren who will forever carry her memory in their hearts. She is also survived by her sisters, Olivia Gutierrez and Aurora Ortiz.

Amelia lived a life full of love and joy. She treasured every moment spent with her family — whether it was playing chalupa, fishing, or vacationing in San Antonio, especially enjoying her visits to Fiesta Texas. Known for her incredible talents, Amelia was an exceptional baker, creating beautiful and delicious wedding and quinceañera cakes that became cherished centerpieces of countless celebrations. She was also an expert seamstress, lovingly crafting her granddaughters' quinceañera dresses, leaving behind handmade pieces of her heart in every stitch.
