“ My grandmother will always have a huge place in my heart. She took us in and raised myself and my sister Anita Lee for a while. What I remembered the most was when she use to brush my long hair every evening and I use to fall asleep on her lap. May you Rest In Peace my beloved grandmother. I am at peace knowing you are at a better place and I have an angel watching over me.

“ My mom was a God Fearing Woman and taught us how to believe in God and prayer and to believe in ourselves. When my mom would pray she would pray for all of us and all the misfortuned individuals out there. She was an amazing inspiration to all of us. Even though she is no longer here with us, her inspiration continues to push me to do better for myself and those around me like she would do.

Mom, I Love You and I already miss you and Thank You first for your many prayers and then everything else that you did for all of us. We are where we are because of you.

Thanks Mom !!!

“ There is so much I could share about our mother, Anita B. Manrique. Our mother loved her children, loved to eat, loved to play Chalupa, loved to laugh, loved her Cowboys, loved life, but most importantly so loved our Lord Jesus Christ. We all may have shared different moments and created different memories with our mother but what we share in common is the love we have for her (it's difficult to use 'had').

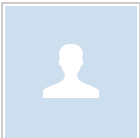

My memories with my mother are taking her to eat breakfast, shopping, laughing, and finishing up our day with lunch. This became our every two weeks ritual. Memories that I will treasure forever 🙏😊❤️

It's not goodbye. It's a - we will see you once again when the good Lord says it is time 🙏❤️
