“ Grandma I miss you so much. There’s not enough words for me to say how much I miss you and love you. I can’t believe you’re gone it doesn’t make sense. You were my best friend and you always will. You were taken to early out of my life 13 years wasn’t enough. I know you’re in heaven looking down at us. I don’t know how I’m going to have my quince without you. I remember you were the one that got me to want one and you were the one planning it. I know you told me to be strong but I don’t want to be strong anymore. I know you wanted your funeral to be beautiful and it was just how you wanted it. Except you were in the casket instead of being with me. Grandma you were always there for me. I miss you calling me every day making sure that we were okay and that I had money. You always took care of me. You were like my second mom. And now I don’t have that anymore. We are going to continue to fight for you because this isn’t the way you wanted to go or ours. You told me to rekindle my relationship with my dad because I hadn’t been talking to him and I’ve tried but it’s not the same without you here. I told you everything because you always wanted to hear. I don’t know what I’m going to do without you gone. I miss you telling me millions of your childhood stories. I miss your bubbly personality and your beautiful smile. Grandma I miss you so much. Thank you for always putting us first. Rest easy- Your granddaughter Kylie

“ Grandma you don't know how much I miss you. There isn't enough words I could say how much I miss you and love you. I miss the millions of stories you had told me. It is never going to be the same. Your funeral was beautiful you would've loved it was everything you wanted. I don't know how I'm going to plan my quince without you but I know you'll be looking from above. Grandma I know you told me to be strong but I don't want to be strong you were my everything and now your gone. I miss you so much and we're going to fight for you this isn't the way you wanted to go and this wasn't ours either. I needed so much more time with you 13 years wasn't enough. Grandma you were my best friend. I miss talking to you every day. I miss your voice telling me is okay. I know finally you're not hurting anymore but we're hurting now. You told me to not be mad at my dad and I've tried so hard for you. Grandma I miss you I just wish we had more time. I love you forever-Your granddaughter
