“ My Tio Tony, I remember staying at my Grandma Wicha and Grandpa Tomas house almost every weekend when I was a kid and on Saturday and Sunday mornings Tio coming with pan dulce. And running around the Assumption hall at the bingo's and he'd be wearing the white deal around his waist with the bingo cards, the red ink and coins, helping the people with their cards. And getting on us to quit running around and stop turning the lights off in the bathrooms. Love you chingos Tio! Michael Moreno
