“ To the Cano Family, I see this picture of Mr. Cano and remember his joyful and kidding smile which he almost always seemed to have except when he was going to tell a joke or a funny thing in which he would first start out with a sad face and end up with a laughing smile. I was sad to hear from my father that Arnulfo had passed and my most sincere condolences to all the family for your loss. I know he was a dear friend of my father and we shared some memories of when they would all get together at their functions and dances but most of all for his forever smile. GOD BLESS and REST IN PEACE.

Primos - Arnold, Albert, Andy and my Tia. Tio lived a long, full and beautiful life. A war hero, POW survivor, great Dad, awesome Uncle, and wonderful husband. And yet, found time to help many others in life. I will miss my Tio 'Nufo, and as tough as it must be, I assure you he's already doing great things in heaven - and has joined Mom and Tio Amadeo, Mama and Papa, his baby siblings and all his 'brothers' lost in battle. God Blessed us with a great man. Love you guys. Larry Joe
