

Beatriz Cavazos

December 23, 1974 - September 12, 2021

Beatriz Cavazos (Bea), was an amazing woman. She did everything for her three kids, Christopher (oldest son), Cristal (first daughter), and her youngest daughter, Clarissa. Beatriz stuck by her husband's side, Jose, as they were married for 24 years. Beatriz's family was her greatest priority. She was a great wife, mother, daughter, sister, and friend. She was a very hard worker who loved her job and earned her position as assistant supervisor of Sarati Laboratories. She was such a good person who enjoyed making everyone laugh. Her smile was so contagious as she loved bringing happiness to others. She was so brave, confident, and outgoing. She enjoyed cruising in her big truck, jamming out to the music that she loved. She was the biggest Dallas Cowboys fan and loved to eat barbacoa, menudo, and tamales every Sunday with her family. She was the biggest supporter of her husband and her kids; she accomplished so many great things with her husband, Jose, the two of them gave their kids everything that they could. She supported her son in his love for football at a young age up until high school, she never missed any of his games. She supported her first daughter in her pursuit of a college education and never ceased to motivate her to never give up on her dream career. Beatriz supported her youngest daughter in becoming an accordion player in the Conjunto Band at Los Fresnos High School and sat outside with her for hours as she listened to her daughter practice. Beatriz was such a beautiful person who touched everyone's hearts in so many different ways. She will always be remembered for the love that she had for her family and friends. Now we all get to cherish all the memories that she gave to us.
