

Brian Richard Garcia

December 9, 1990 - August 19, 2022

Brian Richard Garcia 31, crossed over Heavens gates on August 19, 2022. He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Margarita G. Cavazos, Gumecindo Cavazos and Lazaro Garcia; uncles Leonel Garcia and Lupe Cavazos; aunt Rebecca Bernal, and cousins Stephan Quiroga and Amy Guerrero.

He is survived by his daughters, Holly Melaine Garcia, Kyleen Monroe Garcia, Kacelynn Brianne Garcia; son Landon John Sias; his Mother Dolores Perez (Arnold), Father Ricardo Garcia (Rachel), and sister Cristal Shannon Garcia (Paul Bueno). He was the funny and goofy uncle Brian to his nieces Kara Drew Bueno and Avery Isla Bueno.

Brian was a proud veteran of the United States Army. He loved where he worked and was proud of his Field Supervisor title. He loved the great outdoors! Fishing, and hunting were his thing. There was hardly a time you'd find him indoors, unless he was cooking up something on the stovetop. He loved to sing, dance, twerk, spend time with his family, drink a beer, and make everyone laugh! He will always be remembered for his selfless act of kindness in providing the Gift of Life to someone in need.

In lieu of flowers the family has arranged a GoFundme page titled "Brian's Girls" in memory of Brian, to support any cost associated with counseling and grievance support. Please visit <https://gofund.me/fb87ffc3>

“ My memory of Brian was when he was younger and hung out with my two sons either at his house or ours. When they were up to being mischievous, Brian had the cutest giggly laugh. One I have never forgotten. He was always a kind hearted little boy. Always with a smile on his face.

“ My favorite memory of my beloved nephew is of him catching spotted lizards in my back yard. Brian, being the rascal he was, got the biggest kick out of chasing Cristal, his Mom and i with those lizards! He was a hoot, never a dull moment. The memories I have of him will keep him close to my heart forever. Love, Aunt Mary
