“ Our condolences to the Galvan family. May the lord bless you all. May he grant you all peace and strength needed to continue forward. We will miss Tia Concha, but let us give thanks to the Lord for the precious moments we were able to spend with her. Let us remember, The ones we love don't go away, they walk beside us, every day... Unseen, unheard, but always near. Still loved, still missed and very dear.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the whole family during this hard time. Concha was a wonderful women with a very kind heart. I will never forget her for welcoming me into the family all those years ago with open arms. She shared so many amazing recipes with me that I still make to this day. She will be missed but never forgotten.
Rest in peace Concha

“ As a neighbor and the eldest daughter of my neighbor, Ms Galvan was a personification of a Godly woman. I never knew her to say anything bad about or to another She demonstrated kindness, love, and fairness to all. She loved her family and her fellow men and women. We loved her back. Rest in peace, Ms Galvan.
