

Crescencio M. Landeros

April 19, 1933 - December 6, 2023

Crescencio Landeros, 90 was called home by the Lord on Wednesday, December 6, 2023 in Harlingen, Texas. He was born on April 19, 1933 in Erongaricuaró, Michoacán, Mexico to Odilon and Carmen Landeros. Funeral services will be held at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday December 13, 2023 at Rudy Garza Funeral Home. Interment will follow at Ashland Memorial Park.

He was a devoted man of faith and a member of Primera Iglesia Bautista. His commitment to his beliefs was exemplified through his role as a deacon in the church. While living in Plainview, he worked for the Hamby Company for many years. In 1985 he moved to Harlingen where he continued to work as a welder at Sort Rite International until his retirement. After retirement, Crescencio enjoyed his pastime in comfort and joy cultivating in his beloved garden. His favorite flower was the red rose which is a symbol of the enduring love he sowed in our hearts.

Crescencio is survived by his wife Juana Z Landeros, his children Pedro Landeros and wife Teresa of Plainview, TX, Ana Maria Landeros of Plainview, TX, Mario Landeros and wife Mary of Plainview, TX, Irma Valles and husband Noe of Lubbock, TX, David Landeros of Poteau, OK, Jesse Landeros and wife Nora of Plainview, TX, Carmen Salazar of Plainview, TX, Avimelet Landeros and wife Cassandra of Lubbock, TX, Sebastian Landeros of Harlingen, TX. Step-Children Maria Guadalupe Carreon and husband Gilberto Vaquera of Harlingen, TX, Jesus Carreon and wife Beatriz of Harlingen, TX. 18 grandchildren, 3 step-grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren, and 2 step great grandchildren.

Also survived by one sister Anita Landeros Martinez, four brothers Luis Landeros, Odilon Landeros, Julian Landeros and Emilio Landeros.

He is preceded in death by his first wife, Virgilia Landeros; daughter, Maria Alicia Rivera; and brother, Raul Landeros.

May his legacy as a faithful servant of God and loving father continue to inspire and flourish in the hearts of those he touched.
