“ Cruz was the first person I met in bonita park when I first arrived from chicago. When he asked me my name I said Cruz, and he said no I am Cruz! too funny. He was a good friend I will miss him. I am so sorry for your loss God Bless you all...

“ Cruz, (Bibi) Acevedo), our cousin, was born on the same day that my mother passed on from this earthly life. I remember that our family was instructed not to let my tia Lucia (Bibi's mother) know that our mom had died because she had just given birth to Bibi. But the radio was on at my tia Lucia's home and back then, announcements were made over the radio regarding a death in the family. So, my aunt heard the news about her sister's death anyhow. Later on the following year, my tia Lucia became ill and it happened that I was staying at her home with my children. Bibi was a baby and since it was during the summer, it was hot as only South Texas knows it. I took care of him and bathed him frequently in the kitchen sink. I always regarded Bibi as a younger brother as my mom and his mom were very close. Rest in peace, Bibi. I shall look for you among the stars at night.
