

Daniel Thomas Savarino

March 30, 1957 - January 25, 2023

On Wednesday, January 25, 2023, Daniel Thomas Savarino, a loving husband, brother and father of three children passed away at the age of 65. Dan was born on March 30, 1957 in Houston, TX to William Savarino Jr. and Jessie (Graham) Savarino.

He was the middle child of three brothers, his oldest sibling Mark Savarino (deceased) and younger brother Billy Savarino.

He graduated from Mercedes High School in 1975 and attended the University of Houston. He married Glenda (Jeter) Allen, and they raised two sons, Nicholas and Steffen, and one daughter Steffany.

Dan spent his career in the commercial refrigeration industry.

His infectious personality allowed him to successfully develop and maintain long standing relationships that span 35+ years. He was well respected as a leader by his peers.

Dan had a passion for sports throughout his life. His love of coaching his children superseded any obligation he had in front of him. Dan, like his father, placed an exorbitant amount of time, money, and passion into teaching children the game of baseball. His passion was justifiable considering the successes of his father and brothers. His father played at the University of Houston and was a member of the 1953 College World Series team. Both his brothers played at the collegiate level with high success and his younger brother Billy competed professionally within the Oakland Athletics organization. Dan loved nothing more than to tell their story. He could not have been prouder of their accomplishments. He also was an avid hunter. He loved the outdoors, but more importantly he cherished the time with his family. He was known for his quick wit, humor, and storytelling.

Dan's eight grandchildren were a major focus in his life. He loved attending any event in which they participated, and they were all a sole focus in his conversations. To say that he was proud grandfather, would be an understatement.

Dan was preceded in death by his father William Jr, his mother Jessie, and his brother Mark.

He is survived by his wife Lisa, his three children, Nicholas (wife Ashley), Steffen (wife Alison), Steffany (husband Dusty), sister-in-law Wendy, his brother Billy (wife Tressa), eight grandchildren (Hunter, Aubrey, Carter, Brooklynn, Brennley, Gia, Dominic and Dewey), several cousins, a nephew, and three nieces.

A visitation will be held Sunday, January 29, 2023 from 1:30 pm to 3:00 pm with a memorial immediately following until 4:30 pm at Rudy Garza Funeral Home Chapel of Peace in Mercedes, TX.
