“ To the Rivera family,
We are so sorry for your loss. David will always be remembered as a funny, when can we go fishing type of guy. He is now in his glorious paradise, embracing all his loved ones from his past. May he rest in peace, and know that he will be missed.

With our deepest condolences,
Gina & Greg Brown

“ I’ll always remember my Uncle David being an amazing craftsman - he was always so creative. Everytime we would visit as kids he was doing some kind of work either painting our Buddha statue or fixing something to help out his sister Blanca & always moving, always going - a hard working man. I’ll always remember how cool he was, he was laid back and easy going - Could laugh off anything - just relaxed and always said it like it was. He and Uncle Henry were very alike in personality and composite & they are both loved and missed - great uncles. I’m sad for my family but at ease to know he is in the eternal kingdom with his mom, dad, and brother Henry.

“ My brother David the self proclaimed fisherman, asked him what kind of fish we were catching and he'd give u a name only to find out later that it was something else entirely...or if it was a keeper and the answer was always yes! Always had great laughs when we got together at south padre island fishing! You will be missed...
