“ My sister would perk up whenever family visited, she was all smiles. She would embrace us so tight and smother us with kisses. We'd all sit next to her and watch her shows on tv. We took some vacations together. The time we went to Las Vegas was the best time ever. We laughed so hard! Many times we'd go see family in McAllen, her daughter Debbie was our driver. In fact Debbie was her angel here on earth. She took excellent care of her mother. Thank you so much! Rest in peace my dear sister, until we meet up again soon. Te quiero con todo mi corazon.

“ She loved having family visits and would have a big smile and a big hug and kiss for each of us. We shared stories and had some laughs. So much love for her family. A gift from God. She will be missed deeply but we know she is in heaven so we will celebrate her life and be thankful for our time together.
