

Emilio B. Vega Jr.

January 26, 2013

Emilio B. Vega, Jr. 66, a truck driving man, pero puro tejano entered into rest Saturday, January 26, 2013. He was one of the last cowboys of the open road who helped build cities of his nation by running steel over long roads. He was a hardworking man who had three loves; family, road and Texas; and was especially proud of his son's military service.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Emilio Sr. and Esperanza Vega; daughter, Brenda Marie Vega and lifelong love, Roberta Espino.

Emilio was a very generous man who had a big heart and lived and died on his own terms. He will be greatly missed.
