“ She was a sweet loving lady. When my daughter Bibi was little and we would go to the football games she would come sit with me and carry her so I could watch the game. May she Rest In Peace.

“ To the Hinojosa family, on behalf of the late Antonio G Rodriguez family (Olivia Garcia writing) I express condolences and sympathy to every family member. We all loved Eudelia. She brought joy and Smiles when we spent time together. She loved dancing and would cheer my brother Tony at events. She and I had a great relationship before I married and would invite her to school events or other functions. She was such a joyful person. I will pray for the repose of her soul and that she Rest In Peace. Blessings and Smiles
