February 21, 1953 - July 4, 2025

Eusebia Torres of Harlingen entered into eternal rest on Friday, July 4, 2025 surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Harlingen February 21, 1953 to Juan and Catarina Sanchez. She is preceded in death by her parents; her grandson, Mikey Alvarez; and her granddaughter, Aaliyah Gonzalez.

"Cheva" as she was lovingly known is survived by the family who adored her: husband of nearly 56 years, Jose Torres; her beloved Lola (Dog); 4 children, Dahlia Alvarez, Diana Torres (Ralph Sanchez), Joey Torres (Zenaida), and Minnie Torres (Steve Solis); 12 grandchildren, Amanda, Michelle, Ralphy, Lala, Kendra, Kayla, Cierra, Carlos, David, Heaven, Celest, and Elijah; 16 great grandchildren; 2 siblings; many nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends. She is dearly missed.

For 20 plus years, Cheva was a devoted care giver to folks who cherished her service. She was famous for her gardening. Her plants and flowers attracted the public passing by, to a point where they would stop to admire the scenery, ask questions, and often wanted to buy a plant or two. She always just shared. Cheva was also a shop-a-holic. Her wide collection of shoes, heels, sandals, and purses is countless.
