

Facundo Ramirez

December 27, 1946 - February 20, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Facundo Ramirez, who left this world on February 20, 2025, at the age of 78. Born on December 27, 1946, in Harlingen, Texas, to David and Hortencia Ramirez, who preceded him in death, Facundo lived a life defined by generosity, kindness, and an unwavering dedication to helping others.

Facundo was a devoted husband to his beloved wife, Dora Maria Ramirez, and a loving father to his four children: Irene Morales (Saul), Isabel Ramirez (Henry Rodriguez), Leonel Ramirez (Andrea), and Imelda Niño (Ramon Sanchez). He was also a proud grandfather to eight grandchildren and a caring stepfather to Pedro Pablo Arrellano and Perla Gabriella Arrellano, along with three step-grandchildren. He is also survived by his six siblings: Guadalupe Loya, Ludivina Barajas, Sonia Morales, Jacinto Ramirez, Erasmo Ramirez, and Valentin Ramirez.

Facundo had a heart as big as Texas, always extending a helping hand to those around him—whether they asked for it or not. He often said, "Some people need a push to move ahead, and I will be that person," a sentiment he lived by every day. He worked tirelessly in construction for many years, dedicating his efforts to Wrightway Construction, William Brothers, and several other companies.

Beyond his work, Facundo found joy in life's simple pleasures. He loved fishing, hunting, horseback riding, and caring for his animals. His passion for music and dancing was undeniable—he especially enjoyed chotis and polkas, always ready to take to the dance floor with enthusiasm.

Services to honor and celebrate Facundo's life will be held on Sunday, February 23, 2025, with visitation from 5:00 PM to 9:00 PM, with a Rosary at 7:00 PM. A funeral service will take place on Monday, February 24, 2025, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 AM at St. Theresa Catholic Church in San Benito, Texas. Services will conclude at the church.

Facundo's legacy of kindness, hard work, and love for family will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew him. He will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
