“ Dear Diana I remember your mother as a kind and caring soul. You could tell that she liked you even though you could not understand her language. Much love to you and your family.

“ Memories of Saturday mornings in Ligonier and pancakes for breakfast if I spent the night. The Language barrier was always breached by the love and caring shone though kindness. Thank you for teaching love through kindness. As I drive by that old house on Martin Street I will remember you and your family every time. May God greet your entry into heaven with glory !
