“ I ran into Gerald at HEB a few short months ago. We compared wounds from lab work, and he was very positive that he was going to be ok. Today, he is perfect! When we visited him in the hospital, he knew his number was coming soon., but hubby and I were able to have a cheerful conversation. Gerald, you were a good son, father, and human being. Thanks for allowing us and our Vanessa to be a small part of your life. May you be resting peacefully in the arms of Jesus.
