

Guadalupe 'Manuel' Zavala

June 2, 1939 - November 30, 2023

Guadalupe 'Manuel' Zavala, 84, entered into eternal rest peacefully November 30, 2023. He was full of charisma, a hard worker and a diligent provider for his family. A man who loved to laugh with his children and enjoyed gardening and landscaping around his property. He always had a comb in his back pocket to make sure he looked extra smooth like Johnny Cash. He had a fondness for cruising around in his classic pickup trucks back in the day and his family describes him as a practical jokester. He also enjoyed slow dances with his wife. A lifelong resident of La Feria, TX. He was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.

He is preceded in death by his parents Jesus & Felipa Zavala; his amazing wife of 56 years Maria Magdalena Zavala, his first wife Avelina Zavala and his beautiful daughter Leticia Zavala; his brothers Arturo and Lupe Zavala; and his sister Leonor Luna.

He is survived by his daughters Sofia and Belinda Zavala; his sons George and Randy (Whitney) Zavala; grandchildren Cynthia (Lloyd) Warner, Robert, Kasandra, Maria, David, Brandon, George Jr, Syrina, Syvanna, & Bronson Zavala; and great-grandchildren Bradlee Gonzalez, Leilah Levrier, Leo and June Aldridge, & Riot Warner.

“ I have very fond memories of my uncle Manuel. I was the first grandchild in the Zavala family and was surrounded by lots of love and attention from my aunts and uncles. I will always remember his laugh and million dollar smile. Rest in peace tio and give my grandparents a big hug. 💕
