"A wife of noble character is worth far more than rubies; her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. She is clothed with strength and dignity; she speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also praises her: 'Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.' Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised."

“ We wish to send our deepest sympathy to each and everyone of you upon hearing of Helen’s passing. We live across the street from Helen and Jim’s home in Albuquerque. Your mother and grandmother was a very kind and outgoing woman who always made time for her neighbors and wanted to lend a helping hand whenever the opportunity arose. We will always remember her devotion and love for Jim and her strong faith to accept God’s will for her life. We were all blessed to know her and will carry so many wonderful memories of her close to our hearts. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. May God bless you and Keep you in His care. My condolences to Helen's family. What a wonderful woman she was. She was an inspiration to me and I missed her so much when she moved to Texas. I know she really wanted to be with her beloved, the Colonel. Helen, you are where you want to be now. May God bless your family always. Love you! Forever your friend, Arlene Portillo
