“ I was fortunate to know Jeanette through her daughter Janet and son-in-law Darin. I loved sitting around the dinner table with her, engaging in humorous and lively conversations. She made me smile with her unique laugh, engaged me with her honest thoughts, and moved me with her love of family and strong faith. I'm sad at her passing but joyful that she no longer suffers the pains of aging on this earth, and is now reunited with her husband and parents. I was blessed to have known her.

“ I first met your beautiful mother at St. Paul Lutheran School in Harlingen. It has probably been 48 plus years since I have seen her. My memory of her, besides her height, was her beautiful soul. I was there that I met her son Tim and his two sisters Janet and Nancy. May the peace of our Lord be with each of you today and in the coming days ahead.
