“ Went to HEB today and it saddened me that I'll no longer see Jessie there, his smile and hand wave, his conversations. Jessie represented the good and simple things of life, things that no longer seem to have a place in this complicated world. Jessie offered friendship and sincerity without a catch, no hidden agenda, no posturing and he didn't care what your your status in society was. We were privileged and blessed to have known him and we will miss his soul but we will never forget him. Rest in God's divine peace my dear friend, will see you on the other side.

*Jesse was a very humble & kind person , we had the privilege of meeting him @ HEB , through the years he became a great friend to us , he always had a smile on his face & would always greet us & he always made sure to help my husband Leonard Montes to carry out his groceries to the car without hesitation..., even though he faced difficult challenges in Life , he always greeted everyone with a smile , he always talked to us about his fishing trips & he will be greatly missed , our visits to HEB will no longer be the same without Jesse . Our Deepest Condolences to his family & of course his HEB family . May the Perpetual light shine on him as he is greeted by his mother , father & sisters . Rest In Eternal Peace Jesse . 🌹 .....
