“ Jorge was so kind and sincere to myself and my mother, his kindness will be missed. He would be there anytime we needed help with anything, even if we were crazy enough to move in June in the Valley...he never admired my timing, but as long as I made him some cookies or baking, he would forgive me. Him and Roman would run the grill with many family BarBQ's and we even got a chance to work with him for a little while at T-Mobile, where he grew an admiration on how I could handle crazy people! He always had a smile and something nice to say. It hurts my heart to know that his children will miss him so very very much, as they are his everything. Gone to soon Jorge, and you will be missed.
