“ "4pcs of bacon" he always said playing around. (inside joke) He was a smart and funny dude and I will remember the good times hanging out, Cooking out with his son Ramon hearing Neil Dimond radio on Alexa.. He will be missed by everyone that knew him. My thoughts and Prayers to his family and my Brotha Ramon. Love you

“ With all my love and sincerest condolences to all the Trevino Family. I had the pleasure to share but 5 years of his life and have many great memories from that time. He was an amazing person and he truly was a great man. I will miss his jokes and laughter he had a great sense of humor and that was his best gift... the ability to make me and others laugh. I wish that things would have turned out a different way, but this is how our journey went I thank God for sending me to Mercedes, Tx 7 years ago to share my faith and my life with Jorge. Even though I am his ex-wife, I can truly say that he was awesome. I had the pleasure of meeting with him for breakfast not too long ago and I think we laughed through the whole time we were there. He loved to tell stories and some of those stories he made up along the way, that's what made them funnier. He loved music and of course he loved Star Wars, Lol. Most of all I know that he Loved God! He enjoyed listing to worship music at home and I loved when he would read his bible out loud in the mornings, he had a beautiful reading voice. It made me feel so content to know that my husband was in the word of God daily. I got a chance to see and help him embrace a whole new way of life. He truly wanted to live for God and have peace in his life. I Praise God that I had a chance to experience that time with him. He was by no means perfect, but I would remind him that as long as there was a struggle, that was a good sign. The struggle means that he was still trying and had not given up yet. I know that he now is face to face with Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, he is up there in heaven with his love of his life Emelia Trevino, that was the woman that he most loved and I didn't mind it at all. I was glad just to be able to bring him a little joy and love into his life for however long it would be. I can truly say, It is Well with My Soul knowing that He IS IN HEAVEN. He made it HOME to Our Father's House.
With all my Love, Belen Trevino

My cousin, George was one of my most favorite persons in this entire world. I met George as a tiny infant and got to see him through so many different situations in this life. We sat and talked and laughed for hours on end over so many years. George, you live in my heart and only those that are special live in our hearts forever. You shared how you and Imelda had such a powerful relationship and how you never got over losing her so early in life. You often acknowledged how your daughters, Evanna and Alyssa were the product of such an incredible relationship. Ramon was so close to your heart as well. The pain of losing Imelda was always simmering under your usual sense of humor. I remember most how you could make me laugh and also how protective you were of me, "your primita" The last time we talked on the phone, I am aware that I wasn't listening as intently as I should have. I remember you telling me how much you enjoyed Barbara Streisand and how you did not want to listen to LeAnn Reimes at your funeral. We teased about that. I pray that the Lord hold you close to HIS heart and that HE help your family deal with this most difficult loss. May the Lord take you up to HIS heaven and join you with your love, Imelda Trevino. I love you, Primo George. Your cousin, Dr. Mary Trevino.
