

Jose Manuel Conde

February 4, 1957 - August 5, 2023

Mr. Conde was called home Saturday, August 5, 2023, at the age of 66. He was a humbling man and always put his family before himself. He was a Father, Husband, Grandpa, Friend, Brother & loving kind, Son. Who fought bravely like a warrior for his life & supported his family through the good of joyful times & through the bad times.

No one was like my father, husband, Grandpa, Friend, Brother & a Son. He was and will ever be our biggest inspiration & a true hero to us. Our Family leaned on him during tough times, and he was a warrior & an angel from God that never let us down.

That strength he possessed wasn't flashy or in your face. In many ways, he was a quiet, unassuming man who just got on with things. But it was beneath the surface that his principles & determination lay. That was most evident in how he put US, his Family, First and the way he made sure we were protected no matter what.

We will all remember the good times. All the wonderful blessing memories we all made with Joe Conde & how much he would make his family laugh when we needed to laugh.

It's hard to imagine a life without our father, Husband, Grandpa, Friend, Brother & Son, we will all miss you dearly.

He is preceded in death by his father, Rogerio Conde and his brother, Ricardo Conde.

He is survived by his loving wife, Margarita Conde; his mother, Maria de Jesus Conde;

his children: Daniela Sandoval (Christopher Ramirez), Nereida Conde (Joshua San Miguel), Jose Conde (Jackie), Jesus Conde, Emily Conde, Angel Conde, Angelica Conde (Jamaul Adkinson) and

7 grandchildren: Jordan Woodard, Adrian Cozart, Darren Ramirez, Jeremyah Conde, Jakari Adkinson, Christopher Ramirez, Ellenyah San Miguel, Josyah San Miguel.

He is also survived by his sisters, Maria Norma Rodriguez (Steven) and Diana Soto (Sonny) and his brothers, Elias Conde (Caroline), Rogerio Conde, Jr. and Noe Conde.

“ My dad was out back home our best friend our everything when we needed something he was there . When we wanted something to eat he wasn't hesitant to bring us something or waste his money to get us food or waste gas in picking us up. He would sit outside of our work appointments every thing we were doing he would be waiting for us outside we always counted on him to be there for us but now as a family we are going to be there for each other like he wanted us to be ❤️ may you rest in paradise papi Joe 💕💕
