“ My Tio Chevoya...lived in Santa Maria, CA for many years and came to our house when we were kids to BBQ on the weekends with his catch of the day . A great steak always cooked a little too rare for moms liking, but we came to appreciate and love it. After my father died, his brother Olegario, he still came to vist and long after the rest of the boys has passes on, he would visit and we would go to dinner at the place he missed the most.... Jocko's. I'm so glad I was able to spend time with him in his last years. I'll miss the one and only Ice Cube!

Rest in peace with your brothers Tio, they've been waiting for you with their arms open wide!

God bless you.
