“ My deepest sympathies to Josie's family. There are people who made a great impact in your life, even if you have know them for a short period of time. Josie Ayala, you were one of those people. I learned so much from you during my internship at a profesional and personal level. You were always so kind and sweet and so funny to be around. 🕊️Rest in peace my friend🕊️

“ To the family of Josie, I am very sorry for your loss. She was a great friend of mine and co-worker, and I am going to miss her so much. Josie was always so happy and always laughing and everyone loved her so much. I will miss her dearly. Thoughts and prayers to the family and especially to her children who she loved and talked about all the time.
