“ Le escribo porque deseo compartir con usted unas palabras de consuelo. Dios anhela devolverles la vida a los muertos, incluido su ser querido, pues ellos están en su memoria. (Isaías 14:14,15) Dentro de poco Dios acabará de una vez por todas con la muerte y limpiara las lágrimas de todo rostro. (Isaías 25:8)

“ My heart is broken to pieces...

I have so many memories of you... You came into my life when I was fourteen years old... You were the one that was there when my babies were born, birthdays, holidays, when my car would break down, and so many more... I'm going to miss looking forward to seeing you at work at night and having our conversations... Thank you for all the memories... We will miss you so much...

You were more than a stepdad, you were a dad for me, when my dad couldn't be here... Love you...

“ There are to many memories it's hard to mention just one, there was football, grabbing coffee and breakfast, delivering the newspaper, playing darts and dominoes, the Christmases and Thanksgivings, cookouts, working together at PCC and so much more and it may seem strange to others but one of the closest things to my hear was before everyone of my surgeries you were there to pray for me, that meant so much I made them wait on you before the last one, it just didn't seem right to do it without that special prayer.

You were more than just a stepfather to me you were my friend and I will miss you.

“ We are sad because of your sudden passing but we will cherish our memories of you.

A fond memory I will share....I remember when dad was in Regional Hospital because of his health issues before his passing, you would visit and stay with him. You would always be joking and making dad laugh and for that matter anyone in the room.

A lot of times it's about the special moments we share in life and we hold those close to our hearts...

2 Timothy 4:7

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.
