“ To Ricky Tony and Veronica Lucio, our most sincere condolences to you and your family on your loss of your father and mother also. We were very pleased to have known them during youth baseball years and all other friends we made there. I still get stopped around town by players we coached then. And Janie was so friendly every time we saw her around town too. I want to thank Juan for his military service as well. He served during the Vietnam War years. Most sincere respects from Roy Linda Roy III Melissa and Sergio Garcia.
