

Juan R. Rangel

February 6, 2013

Juan R. Rangel, 77, entered into rest February 6, 2013 at home surrounded by his loving family.

Juan dedicated his life to his work and his family. His faith was strong and he ensured his children grew up in a Christian environment.

If you knew him, you understood his sense of humor. If he had a nickname for you it's because he cared about you. He always had just the right 'saying' or 'dicho' for any situation. His employers described him as a 'fair, ethical and honest man who produced quality work and could always be counted on'. He came from a time when a man's word and a handshake was all that was needed. His goal was to raise his boys to be men who were respectful and could be respected and to raise his girls to be strong and independent women.

His family describes him as a loving husband and father. In his later years, his greatest joy was his grandchildren who in his eyes could do no wrong. His 'kiddos' opened his heart and taught him how to express his love openly. The kids could always count on 'Papo' for a treat or a bit of loose change.

After his battle with cancer, 'Papo' has now closed his eyes to this world and opened them to look upon the face of our Lord Jesus Christ.

He is survived by his loving wife; Rita Rangel of Combes; four children, Herminia (Minnie) Rangel of Austin, Enedelia 'Nellie' (Gordon) Woodward of Harlingen, Fermin (Irma) Rangel of Ennis, TX, Eleazar 'Eli' (Yvonne) Rangel of Lyford; six grandchildren, Brooke and Hunter Woodward, Isaac Atkinson, Shelby, Audrey and Lyndsey Rangel.

Visitation will be held today (Friday) from 10am to 9pm and holy rosary will be held at 7pm.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, February 9, 2013 departing the Rudy Garza Chapel of Peace at 9:30am for a 10:00 am service at Queen of Peace Catholic Church and interment will follow at Santa Rita Cemetery in Sebastian.
