“ My Tia. I'm going to miss you. Some of my favorite memories of you is when we'd go to your apartment and spend the night. I remember wrapping up in the green blanket with yellow flowers and watching the Price is Right in the mornings. Then, we'd walk to the restaurant where the Asian man made hamburgers. To this day I think those were some of the best burgers I ever had. We'd sit on the stools and eat our food and then walk back to the apartment. And, the pool at the apartment. I swear it felt like the biggest pool in the world and you'd let us swim for what seemed like hours and then we'd have sandwiches and chips. Such sweet memories. I am glad you are now in peace and with your son, my grandma, your other brothers and sisters and parents. You will be so missed but I know it's just another angel looking down on us.
