

Kathryne Harding

November 20, 1939 - October 19, 2016

Kathryne Edna Harding was born November 20, 1939 in Des Moines, Iowa. She is survived by daughter Lynn Trabing and her husband Mark; daughter Anita Croft and her husband John; grandchildren Jon T. Barrowman, James Trabing, Nathaniel Croft, Damien Croft and Keleigh Trabing; brother George Morris and wife Judy; brother in law Ronald Harding and wife Mary Ellen; brother in law David Blombach and wife Ann.

She moved to Texas with her husband Jim, living in Carrizo Springs, Lubbock and Des Moines before returning and settling in Mercedes, Texas in 1969.

Kay was an active member of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Mercedes, Texas she participated in the church school, library, was the track and field coach for many years, as well as being an animal lover, book enthusiast, artist, stamp collector and coin collector. She loved kids and had a special place in her heart for all kids.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 22, 2016, at 11:00 AM in the sanctuary of Immanuel Lutheran Church, located at 703 W 3rd St. in Mercedes, Texas.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests a contribution to Immanuel Lutheran Church or School Scholarship fund (James A. and Kathrynne Edna Harding).

Tribute Wall

SF

“ Steve Milton and family purchased the Sapphire Skies Bouquet for the family of Kathryn Harding.

Steve Milton and family - October 21, 2016 at 03:09 PM