“ I met Keith Goodwin in 1986 at Parkers Landing Apartment complex as we just moved in from Louisiana. I met Keith at the pool and enclosed is a picture of Keith and friends at the time he was in his 40s an older person then ans we were in early 30s... and we nicknamed him, big daddy. What a big, gentle giant he was always so kind always so helpful and love to laugh. Keith was a hell of a cook and loved to entertain too. He was very very proud of his education and his service to the government. I've considered him all these years a true, true friend, and his wish towards the end was to come to Florida to visit. So sad that dream is not fulfilled but he's in my heart and prayers... will never forget you, Keith , your friend,
