

Manuel Vargas

December 26, 1943 - September 25, 2017

Harlingen - Manuel Vargas 73, of Harlingen entered into the Lord's Kingdom Monday, September 25, 2017. He was born December 26, 1943 to Rafael and Rafaela Vargas in Valle Hermoso, Mexico.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Alejandra "Connie" Vargas; his parents and numerous brothers and sisters.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory his son, Manuel Vargas, Jr.; three daughters, Maggie San Miguel (Jose), Abigail Vargas Luna (David), Cynthia Vargas; 12 grandchildren and 1 great-grandson. He is also survived by a sister, Maria Vargas and 2 brothers, Pablo Vargas and Isabel Vargas.

Manuel Vargas was a real renaissance man. He was a husband, a father, a musician, a teacher, a philosopher, an actor, and an artist. He was a well established painter who was well known throughout the Rio Grande Valley. His work ran from Brownsville all the way to Mission, Texas and the cities in between. He was an extremely talented individual, and was an astounded theologian. Manuel also knew how to make people laugh. His jokes and stories brought joy and laughter into the hearts of many. His love and compassion for his music, art, sense of humor and word of God will greatly be missed.

A Celebration of his life will be held Wednesday, September 27, 2017 at 7:00 PM at the Tabernacle of God's Faithful Grace at 206 W. Filmore St. in Harlingen, the family will receive friends at 6:00 PM. A graveside service will be held Thursday at 10:00 AM at Ashland Cemetery at 21037 Godwin Rd. Harlingen.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Rudy Garza Funeral Home.
