“ I have such wonderful memories of Magge n I we would b outside watering the grass n she would say Manuela do u want a cup of coffee I would say Yes n cross the fence we would have sweet bread or Cookies, the best part was our talks of our wonderful conversation about our children n grandchildren. Our crazy talks about Our spouses that only we Shared. N Boy did we Ever Laugh I Love they Way she would say "Si Verda" n we would laugh again at how crazy our conversations Were...Love U my Dearest Friend I Will Treasure all those Morning Talks Thank You for making a Difference in my Life as my Friend n Neighbor. God be with the Vitela Families... ❤️

“ I remember the me, Chip and the guys were out one winter night doing our teenager thing... it was really cold that night and we went to Chipper's house and started watching TV in the living room. Mrs. Vitela stopped what she was doing and took the time to make us all delicious hot chocolate! That is one of the many caring memories I have of her. Eddie C
