The family would like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to IPH Hospice and Texas Visiting Nurse Services for their compassionate care that they provided during our Mothers difficult duration of her illness. A special Thanks goes to Sandra Perez, RN who gave of herself time and time again to administer the nursing care she needed and to Chaplain Adan R. Cazarez for being there to minister to her spiritual needs. The family would like to express their gratitude to Mrs. Martha Garza for being there on a daily basis to encourage her and make her comfortable, and to always make her laugh and smile despite her illness. A special heartfelt gratitude goes to all the family and friends who offered their support and prayers. Thank you once again for making her final day's very peaceful. Funeral services have been entrusted to Rudy Garza Funeral Home of Mercedes Texas.
