“ Grandma,

You and grandma were a center point in my childhood. I have so many memories it sometimes doesn't feel real or like a dream, of us. I wish I could have spent more time with you. I remember all those summers I went to visit we would eat watermelon, get raspas, and you would just talk to me about your childhood. I miss you and I miss those memories.

I'm just happy that you were able to see your great ganddaughter. Im happy that I got to see that. You were so loved and cherished.

You provided me a safe place after my parents divorced. I love you always and your memory will live on through me.
