“ Nelly always had a huge heart and was all about her family and friends that became part of the family. The biggest memory I will always have is one time we all had a little to much to drink and we hopped on the magic carpet on ground. A memory that always stuck with her. Not a good bye just until we meet again Nelly. R.I.P.

“ From the start she stole my heart. She was always smiling and carrying that free and vibrant smile that was so contagious. Thank you for all those wonderful memories you shared everyone including my daughter Victoria. May you Rest In Peace Nelly and be that guardian angel for your mom, sisters, brothers, nieces, nephews, sisters in law and all your friends. Everyone misses you dearly! 💕💕
