“ We just learned of Mrs. Torres passing and are deeply saddened by this news. Mrs. Maria and Estela her daughter were our neighbors. We looked after each other’s houses and after each other as well. One time my husband and I had to go out of town and actually decided to cancel the trip, when I get a call from Estela telling us not to cancel that her mom and her would be happy to watch over one of our pets Fluffy. They lived him so much and Fluffy loved them both as well. Estela told us that her mom enjoyed the time spent with Fluffy. We were so appreciative of both of them. Fluffy would run to the back when they were both outside tending to the backyard, let them pet him and he would have an occasional taco or so from them and in turn we would send them bbq plates whenever we cooked out or send them a dinner plate. They were our forever angels (best neighbors)! We miss them so much, all we have is the home where our memories of them will never be forgotten!! Thanku for your kindness. Ms. Maria you will be in our hearts forever.! Estela We hope you are doing well, we miss you and please take care..
Always,
Lissa and Eli Aguirre 🤔🥺
