“ May you be comforted by the fact that your loved one made a positive impact on those she met. I still remember being a little girl playing, with Liz, in Livo's kitchen, while Mom and Livo worked on something. Mary Martha had just arrived, and it was a whirlwind of activity. She, even, had Liz and I doing something. I remember asking Mom afterwards who this lady was. She explained that she was Livo's sister, and my cousin. It made me very proud to belong to a family of such involved and energetic women. My thoughts and prayers go out to all the Amaya family.
