“ Remembering when my mother was going into labor January 2, 1972 with my little brother Sergio Trevino it was right after midnight. My grandma told dad to get ready to take mom to the hospital so when dad put on his shoes we all noticed my dad had put on this shoes on the wrong feet. We all started laughing and here's my mom going into labor, she couldn't stop laughing either. My daddy always made us laugh in the weirdest circumstance. Still hurts very much not having either one of my parents.

“ My dad was my whole life ever since his passing I haven't been the same. Miss him dearly but will cherish the last days I was by his side. Will miss having our morning coffee sitting out on the front porch. But I know in my heart he's at peace with my beloved mom now. Which he loved and missed terribly.
