

Michael E. Scott

April 14, 1959 - December 27, 2017

Michael Scott passed away peacefully early morning on December 27, 2017 with his wife Brenda at his side. Mike was a very happy and joyful person. He played golf regularly but had to give that up upon his sickness. He also loved to sing Karaoke which he did as often as he could. Michael is remembered for his great sense of humor and was joking often with all who knew him which was nearly all the time. Even during his sickness he never stopped joking and showing kindness to others.

He is survived by his wife Brenda Mollett Scott of twenty six years and by his father Bruce Edward Scott from Ashland Kentucky. He has three sisters and one brother.

A Memorial Service will be held for Michael Scott on Saturday January 13, 2017 at Ruby Garza Funeral Home, 236 South Ohio, Mercedes, Texas from 11:00a.m. to 2:00p.m.. The service will commence at 11:00 A.M. officiated by Elder Bobby Rivera of Mercedes Jehovah Witness Church in Mercedes.

“ I would like to offer my condolences to the family. Recently I lost my mom to death so I know how painful it is to losing a dear loved one. I would like to share 2 bible scriptures that comforted me during my grieving time. Please take a moment to read these 2 scriptures & I hope they bring you some comfort during this painful time.

Sincerely,
Ellie
