“Connie.. I am just so sad about this. Raymond gave so much to our community. He was committed, dedicated and the Brownsville Texas Exes were blessed to have him as a supporter. He was a loyal Longhorn and Texas Ex. He was as our chapter president from 2005-2006 and he always was part of the core of volunteers that are involved in the chapter work. If we needed something, he was there to help us.

Our chapter would not have a scholarship endowment if it were not for Raymond. He and Polo got us started and today, that endowment continues to award scholarships to deserving Brownsville students going to UT. We had many sendoff celebrations for the new students at the bank and it was because of him.

Take comfort in the memories you shared with him. It will help ease the pain. You and the family are in my prayers. He was a good friend and I will so miss him.

Raymond...Hook' Em!
