“Dad, I want to let you know that I will miss you so much; especially when I take some road trips. You and I would travel to Beaumont, to Houston, to Austin, and one time to Burburnett, TX. I would put on my merengue music, my salsa music, and also some of your favorite corrido songs. You and I would sing along, making and changing some of the lyrics. That was fun! You could still whistle and I loved hearing you do that. You would move your shoulders like if you would be dancing and you would say: "I am not dancing, I am scratching my back!" You had pretty good moves. I want you to be right by my side when I make those road trips. You will be my guardian angel and my traveling partner that will take me to my destination safely. I love you, Dad! See you on my next trip..... Fela Quintanilla
